Creed Room (in Dixon 6th Form Centre), Kingswood School, Lansdown Road, Bath BA1 5RG

Please note the venue change from that previously advertised

A talk, based upon Chris' 13th Science-Art exhibition, funded by the Institute of Physics, pioneering contemporary themes at the science and art interface. His theme looks at transfer of military technologies into civilian applications and provides interesting insights into everyday items: from microwave ovens and the Swiss Army knife to Geostationary satellites!
